

Acapela Group, the leading voice expert leaning upon 25 years of experience, invents text-to- speech solutions to give your content a voice. Over 100 resounding synthetic voices in 30 languages are ready to vocalize your content into a natural and pleasant audio result, by turning written input into speech.

Acapela's repertoire includes voices of characters or celebrities, voices with accents or specific dialect attributes, voices that tell stories, voices that can adopt different moods, voices for all ages and all languages. Because one voice cannot answer all and any needs, we aim to provide a resounding repertoire. And we can create the voice you need. Just for you. This is Acapela bespoke expertise.
